Event Request and Approval Process (for information only)

MCMC will create a new functional committee to handle all requests for events to be held/hosted in MCMC facilities. The name of this committee shall be "Special Events Committee"

This Committee shall have three (3) members including at least one (1) Majlis-e-Shura member.

This Committee will (with the help of MCMC administrator(s)) have the following responsibilities:

- (1) Maintain an 'Event Request Form' to be used for MCMC community to utilize for requesting any events.
- (2) Maintain an event calendar for all recurring, approved, and provisionally approved events.
- (3) Monitor and manage events@mcmcnj.org email address which will be publicized to MCMC community to be used for any event requests. This email shall be checked at least twice a week.
- (4) Maintain ongoing communication with MCMC administrator for all events that are submitted in-person in MCMC office or requests that are submitted via email or fax transmittal. MCMC administrator will need to inform the chair of the 'Special Events Committee' ASAP (or within the same or next working day) when such requests are made. Any requests sent to MCMC via email other than events@mcmcnj.org will be forwarded to this email.
- (5) Review and submit evaluation every week to the Imam and MCMC president/secretary.
- (6) Review urgent requests when such requests have merits. The chair of the Committee will complete review of such a request or delegate it to one of the members to conduct an emergency evaluation. Responses for such emergency requests will be sent to requesters within three (3) working days.
- (7) This Committee shall utilize the following evaluation criteria to recommend approval, rejection, or solicit more information. In case of rejection the chair of the Committee will provide reasons for his/her recommendation.

Evaluation Criteria:

- a. All requests are made using the approved MCMC Event Request Form, at least two weeks in advance.
- b. The requested event is Islamically not objectionable. In case of doubt, the request form is to be reviewed and approved by MCMC Imam.
- c. The requested event is legally not objectionable.
- d. Space requested is available for the requested dates/times. The Committee may ask/recommend cancelling a recurring event to make the space available to this request if appropriate. In such case the organizer of the recurring event will be informed immediately to avoid any inconveniences. This Committee will try to minimize such cancelling and will not cancel events in last minutes.
- e. In case the request is for recurring event, the organizer of the recurring event will be informed that recurring events will be cancelled from time to time to make space available to other events. The Committee may also suggest changes to dates/days/times/frequency of such recurring events.
- f. The number of attendees is within legal limits of the requested space/facility.
- g. The party requesting the events is in good standing status with MCMC based on past events.
- h. Adequate supervision and names of required supervisors/chaperons provided.
- i. The party requesting the event has paid all previous dues including the fee for requested event to MCMC.
