319	Male	22	Pakistani	Bachelors in Biology and	Highschool Teacher	Yes	Permanent Resident, lived here my whole life (Citizen almost)	A connection to the Deen is the most important aspect to me. I enrolled in Islamic Open University a couple years back. In terms of Fiqh we were taught basic Hanbali so that's what I follow in terms of rulings. Specifically ibn Qudamah RH and the book I started with was Al Umdat which is usually the first book of Hanbali Fiqh. I'm taking a course in (more than a year now) of Hanafi Fiqh going over the Mukhtasar of Imam Al Quduri RH with the Imam of my Masjid too so Alhamdulillah for that. Also a course on Riyadus Saaliheen. To understand Aqeedah I'm Athari, I tend to stay away from self teaching Aqeedah without a teacher but follow the Athari position in most areas. One of the basic books we have is	Single	Any	National of any country	Single
